NEW STOREROOM ON MAIN STREET

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky,
as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 27, 1895.

In New Quarters.

Mr. C. S. Bell, jr., has removed his fruit and vegetable store from Ann street to the room recently rented by him in the new Nicol building on South St. Clair street, near the bridge, where he has neat and commodious quarters fitted up. A new iron frame awning has been erected before the building, and with the hand some display of fruit in the large show window and on the inside presents such an inviting appearance that one passing can scarcely resist going in to examine the stock or make a purchase.

Cemetery Improvements.

The handsome artificial stone sidewalk has been completed in front of the cemetery grounds on East Main street and a large and commodious barn has been erected in the rear of the Superintendent's residence, which contains, in addition to quarters for all the live stock, coal bins, hen houses, &c., thus putting under one roof all the outbuildings about the place, and is a handsome improvement which adds very much to the appearance of the place.

Back at His Old Job.

Capt. James F. Browinski, who for so many years was in command of the U. S. Snagboats Kentucky and Gen. O. M. Poe on the Kentucky river, but about a year ago

was appointed Inspector of Steamboat Hulls at Cincinnati, has resigned the latter position and been reassigned as captain of the Poe. The captain's many friends will be glad to see him back at his old place at work on the river and he is doubtless glad to get out of an office largely controlled by political influences.

Married in California.

Rev. H. C. Morrison, formerly pastor of the Methodist Church in this city, was married on Wednesday, the 17th inst., to Miss Peddlar, of San Jose, California. Mr. Morrison has been evangelizing in California for some time and while preaching at San Jose met the young lady he married. His first wife, formerly Miss Laura Bain, of Lexington, daughter of Col. Geo. W. Bain, the celebrated temperance lecturer, died shortly after he left here, leaving two children.

A Sad Case.

Mrs. Shackelford, the widowed mother of the little boy who died with hydrophobia—the result of the bite of a strange dog, inflicted on West Broadway last fall—having become so nervous and her system so broken down by grief at the loss of her child that she was almost helpless, friends interested themselves to gain her admittance to a sanitarium in Cincinnati where she will receive proper treatment for her trouble, and she was sent to that city on Wednesday.

Called to Versailles.

Rev. Alex C. Hensley, of this city, has been called to the pastoral care of St. John Episcopal Church in Versailles. Mr. Hensley has been supplying the pulpit of the church for sometime and so acceptable to the parish have his ministrations become that he has been invited to take charge of it as pastor.

A Great Offer.

We will send the ROUNDABOUT one year and The Louisville Evening Post one year to any subscriber for $3.00 per year. Now is the time to subscribe.
